

U.S. Embassy Bahrain
Demonstration Notice 38 - March 29, 2012

Spontaneous demonstrations take place in Bahrain from time to time in response to world events or local developments. United States citizens should keep current with media coverage of local events and be aware of their surroundings at all times. If you encounter a large public gathering or demonstration, depart the vicinity immediately.

UPDATE: There are calls for violent attacks on police throughout Bahrain on the night of Thursday, 29 March.

- On Thursday, 29 March:

- 1600 hours, a demonstration is planned in Hoorā in the vicinity of the UN offices.
- 1930 hours, a demonstration is planned in BaniJamrah.
- 2000 hours, a demonstration is planned in Manama in the vicinity of American Mission Hospital.

- On Friday, 30 March:

- 1600 hours, multiple demonstrations are planned in Sitra.
- 1900 hours, a demonstration is planned in Janabiyah.

- On Saturday, 31 March:

- In the afternoon, a demonstration is planned in the vicinity of Bab Al Bahrain.
- 1530 hours, demonstrations are planned in Abu Saiba and Tubli.

Some demonstrators have engaged in clashes with the police and continue to employ tactics such as placing debris and oil on roadways, throwing steel spikes and Molotov cocktails. These actions often result in adverse driving conditions, an increased police presence, official checkpoints and significant traffic delays. The Embassy expects these tactics to continue. Please use caution as you drive and plan additional time to arrive at your destination.
